DUMBARTON HOUSE

2715 Q Street, NW
202.653.5190

Dumbarton House is a fine example of Federal period architecture and offers visitors a unique opportunity to enhance their appreciation of early American history. Closely connected to the first years of the American Republic, the house has stood on the heights of Georgetown for over two centuries. Tour hours: year-round - Tuesday-Sunday, 11 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. www.dumbartonhouse.org
The Federal-style house, built in 1801, features the former owners’ Byzantine and Pre-Columbian art collections. The property also contains a remarkable garden boasting 10 acres of trees, including Washington’s famed cherry blossoms, as well as flowers, garden furniture and other ornamental garden fixtures. www.doaks.org.

An example of vernacular architecture, Washington’s oldest home, the Old Stone House, was built in 1765 using locally available resources. The house was renovated by the National Park Service in the 1950s and is run by the National Park Service today. The property also includes a seasonal landscaped garden of the house—perfect for a quiet retreat within Georgetown. Open Wed – Sunday from 12 to 5 p.m. www.nps.gov/nr/travel/wash/dc17.htm

Explore 180 years of history at this 1816 National Historic Landmark house with the extensive Mt. Vernon collection and historic 5 1/2 acre garden. Guided house tours Tues. – Sun. Garden open daily. Museum shop. www.tudorplace.org

The Georgetown Waterfront Park is a serene oasis located on the banks of the Potomac River. The park features gently sloping grass hills and shade trees. The landscape blends with mixed-use paved pathways. The park is a perfect place for a picnic and watching boat races on the river, or relaxing after dining al fresco at one of the fine restaurants next door at Washington Harbour. www.georgetownwaterfrontpark.org
Georgetown hosts year-round signature events for all audiences. The Georgetown French Market event takes place in April and celebrates the Book Hill neighborhood of Georgetown. In September, Georgetown joins in the global “Fashion’s Night Out” with an evening full of events and promotions celebrating DC’s fashion epicenter. “Taste of Georgetown” in October focuses on the neighborhood’s dining options and famed restaurants. Get into the holiday spirit with “Merriment in Georgetown”, a holiday event that incorporates Georgetown’s infinite retail options for holiday shopping, wintertime treats and festive entertainment. To find out more events happening throughout the neighborhood, visit www.georgetowndc.com.

GEORGETOWN FRENCH MARKET

The ever-popular Georgetown French Market event brings over 5,000 attendees to the streets of Georgetown every April. Participating Book Hill merchants set up tables along Wisconsin Avenue from P Street to Reservoir Road with wares up to 70% off. Sale merchandise includes clothing, shoes, housewares, jewelry, furniture and more. Live music, French fare, face painting, caricatures and more round out this popular annual event. FASHION’S NIGHT OUT

In September, for the second consecutive year, Georgetown will serve as the regional host for Fashion’s Night Out, a global event founded by Condé Nast & Vogue Magazine in 2009 to celebrate fashion, restore consumer confidence, boost the industry’s economy, and put the fun back in shopping. Bringing together the neighborhood’s ultrachic stores, restaurants, spas, and salons, Fashion’s Night Out features fabulous fashion events, special discounts and promotions, and extended shopping hours. The event is hosted by a prominent committee of DC’s most style savvy personalities and professionals. www.fashionsnightoutgeorgetowndc.com
TASTE OF GEORGETOWN

The annual Taste of Georgetown, held in October, showcases the spectacular cuisine of 30 of Washington, DC’s finest restaurants. Now in its 18th year, the Taste highlights Georgetown’s culinary personalities and features nearly 60 delectable dishes to sample, as well as wine pairings and the jazz talents of Blues Alley. A celebration of food, wine, and music, the Taste of Georgetown has become the premier food and wine festival of D.C. benefiting the Georgetown Ministry Center’s services supporting the homeless. www.tasteofgeorgetown.com
