Georgetown Sunset Cinema Returns July 9 With Free Outdoor Movie Series

Presented by the Georgetown Business Improvement District, this year's weekly 'Out of Office' series features vacation and trip-themed movies.

Washington, D.C. (May 21, 2019) – The fifth annual Georgetown Sunset Cinema outdoor movies series—hosted by the Georgetown Business Improvement District (BID)—will make its way back to Georgetown Waterfront Park every Tuesday evening beginning July 9 through August 6. Free and open to the public, the five-week 'Out of Office' series will feature vacation and trip-themed movies.

Movigoers are invited to set up a blanket, bring a picnic, and enjoy an evening on Georgetown's beautiful waterfront during one or all of the following featured sunset offerings—as voted on by the public:

- July 9 – Under the Tuscan Sun (PG-13)
- July 16 – The Sandlot (PG)
- July 23 – Little Miss Sunshine (R)
- July 30 – The Parent Trap – 1998 version (PG)
- August 6 – Eat Pray Love (PG-13)

“We’re looking forward to getting out of the office and living vicariously through each of these movies, from European adventures to summer vacation classics,” said Nancy Miyahira, Vice President and Director of Marketing for the Georgetown BID.

The Georgetown Waterfront Park is located at the intersection of K/Water Street NW and Cecil Place NW. Films start at sunset—around 8:30/8:45 p.m. Arrive early to picnic and to get the best seating! For additional information, please visit www.georgetowndc.com/sunsetcinema
