

Georgetown Celebrates Small Business Saturday on Nov. 30

More than 30 retail shops and restaurants to offer in-store promotions + $50 golden ticket giveaway for five lucky shoppers.

Washington, D.C. (November 7, 2019) – Georgetown is participating in Small Business Saturday on November 30—a day dedicated to supporting local small businesses and strengthening and celebrating communities across the country. More than 300 small businesses call Georgetown home, comprising 60% of the commercial district’s restaurants and retailers.

More than 30 of Georgetown’s small businesses will celebrate the day with in-store promotions, giveaways, discounts and more, below. Shoppers will receive a Small Business Saturday bag with purchase at any of the participating small businesses, while supplies last. Up to five of the bags given away on Small Business Saturday will include a golden ticket, redeemable for a $50 AMEX gift card.
