

LYDIA MARTIN

in the company
of silence

OCTOBER 24 - NOVEMBER 13

Lydia Martin's exhibition, in the company of silence is a quiet investigation into time, material, and belief. Originally scheduled to be shown last April at Jewelers'Werk, this body of work has become a culmination of the artist's pause through Covid and her subsequent new beginning. Honoring the current climate, this exhibition is available to view in person and online. The exhibition at Jewelers'Werk may be seen during gallery hours: Monday through Saturday 12 - 5 or by appointment. Please visit inthecompanyofsilence.com to view images and purchase work.
