

Georgetown Sunset Cinema Returns August 2 with Free Outdoor Movie Series

Presented by the Georgetown BID, this year's weekly "Fan Favorites" series is back after a two-year hiatus.

Washington, D.C. (May 17, 2022) – After a two-year hiatus, the Georgetown Sunset Cinema outdoor movies series — hosted by the Georgetown Business Improvement District (BID) — will make its way back to Georgetown Waterfront Park this summer. Free and open to the public, the six-week series will feature "Fan Favorites" on Tuesday nights from August 2 – September 6.

Moviegoers are invited to set up a blanket, bring food from a local Georgetown restaurant, and enjoy an evening along Georgetown's beautiful waterfront during the following featured sunset offerings:

- The Goonies (PG) - 8/2
- Encanto (PG) - 8/9
- Bridesmaids (R) - 8/16
- Black Panther (PG-13) - 8/23
- Summer of Soul (PG-13) - 8/30
- Knives Out (PG-13) - 9/6

"We're excited to bring this popular summer series back to the beautiful Georgetown waterfront, with a theme that will hopefully offer something for everyone," said Nancy Miyahira, Vice President and Director of Marketing for the Georgetown BID.

Georgetown Waterfront Park is located at the intersection of K/Water Street NW and Cecil Place NW. Films start at sunset - around 8:30/8:45 p.m. Arrive early to picnic and to get the best seating! For additional information, please visit www.georgetowndc.com/sunsetcinema.
